

Waltz Lessons

Waltz is the beautiful dance that never goes out of style

Dancers, or would be dancers...

Folks looking for a new activity

Healthy exercise (physical & mental)

..... AND, just plain fun!

Waltz Basics & Cool Moves ~ Wednesday Evenings

Sept 16, 23 & 30 ~ 8:00 to 9:15 pm

Waltz is graceful, it flows – it's as easy as 1-2-3. You'll learn the basics of footwork, partnering, leading and following and we'll include lots of cool moves. Come join us for some fun. Instruction is based on the traditional turning style waltz.

These classes are for beginners as well as dancers who want to improve their technique. It's also suitable for box-step waltzers who are interested in this versatile and popular style.

Allens Lane Art Center, Allens Lane & McCallum St (great dance floor!)

~ Located in the Mt. Airy section of Philadelphia ~ Off street parking

Instruction by Peggy Leiby & Ret Turner

~ Singles or Couples Welcome - registration will be reasonably lead/follow balanced

~ Class size is limited to maximize individual attention
